My Net Worthwhile® is providing the clarity and context clients need to live fully and without financial worry.

As a Wealth Advisor, Adis partners with clients to design, implement, and manage personalized financial strategies that align with their goals and values. He guides clients through every aspect of wealth management, including investments, retirement, estate, tax, and risk planning, by listening deeply, understanding their unique vision for life, and crafting customized plans that protect what matters most.

Adis brings expertise in comprehensive financial planning, investment management, tax-efficient strategies, retirement income planning, and advising business owners and medical professionals. His passion for the profession stems from his own experience as a first-generation immigrant, witnessing the challenges that financial complexity can bring and dedicating his career to helping others navigate them.

He earned a Bachelor of Science in Family Financial Planning from the University of Georgia and is a Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®) and Accredited Investment Fiduciary® (AIF®).

Adis is an active member of the Financial Planning Association (FPA) and volunteers with 3rd Decade, an organization that provides financial education and mentorship to young adults. Outside of work, Adis enjoys traveling, attending sporting events, and spending quality time with his family.
