My Net Worthwhile® is to educate others in making well-informed financial decisions to help them reach their goals.

Catie helps identify clients' needs through a holistic approach to their total wealth, life goals, and objectives. She was inspired to pursue her career path by an interest in overall financial wellness and the ability to empower others to make sound financial decisions.

Catie is well-versed in executive compensation with a background in tax and estate planning. Before joining SignatureFD, Catie worked as a financial planner at Ayco, a Goldman Sachs Company, where she worked primarily with executives and high-net-worth individuals to develop financial plans tailored to their specific needs. During her time there, she also worked in the training and career development of financial planners.

Catie received a Bachelor's degree in Financial Planning from the University of Georgia and an MBA from Kennesaw State University. She is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™.
