My Net Worthwhile® is advising individuals and families as they navigate financial challenges and opportunities.

With a passion for serving others, Colin collaborates with clients to help them create a plan to give them peace of mind and position them for success. Colin offers a high-touch level of service and guidance to help clients optimize their tax, estate, and cash flow plans, combined with an investment portfolio designed to support those plans.

Before SignatureFD, Colin served as a director at Homrich Berg, guiding individuals and family office clients in implementing various planning and investment strategies. He holds a Master of Science in Personal Financial Planning from Georgia State University and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Risk Management from the University of Georgia.

Hailing from Atlanta, Colin is involved in his community and various local organizations. He serves on the Junior Achievement of Georgia Leadership Council and is an active member of Peachtree Presbyterian Church, where he volunteers as a youth Sunday School teacher. Colin lives in Brookhaven with his wife, Alden, and their three children.

Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the certification marks CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and CFP® in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.
