My NET WORTHWHILE™ is helping individuals and families as they navigate financial challenges and opportunities.

With a long-standing passion for serving others, Colin works with clients to help them design a plan that gives them peace of mind. Colin offers the high-touch level of service and guidance that can only come from over fifteen years of experience in the wealth management industry.

Prior to SignatureFD, Colin served as a director at Homrich Berg, where he worked closely with individuals and family office clients on an array of investment, tax, and estate planning strategies. He holds a Master of Science in Personal Financial Planning from Georgia State University and a Bachelor of Business Administration in Risk Management from the University of Georgia.

As an Atlanta native, Colin cares deeply about his community. Colin serves on the Junior Achievement of Georgia Leadership Council, is a board member of the Ashford Park School Education Foundation and an active member of Peachtree Presbyterian Church, where he volunteers as a youth Sunday School teacher.
