My NET WORTHWHILE™ is to efficiently and strategically execute trades to help clients meet their financial goals.

Skilled in trading, managing internal systems, inputting rating changes on stocks, and stock lending, Danielle enjoys assisting the research team and creating stock pitch packets. She is strategic, analytical, and pays close attention to details, which gives her an edge when trading securities to help our clients meet their financial goals and grow their portfolios.

Before SignatureFD, Danielle worked for the Retirement Systems of Georgia and was a student instructor in Business Economics and Statistics. Danielle holds a Bachelor's in Marketing from Georgia College and State University and is working toward her MBA at Kennesaw State University.

Danielle is a vacation bible school leader at her church. When she isn't problem-solving on behalf of clients or studying, she enjoys working out, hiking, traveling, reading, mountain biking, wakeboarding, and spending quality time with her dog, Winston.
