My Net Worthwhile® is helping others experience and unlock a life of possibility, purpose, and abundance.

With the sincere belief that no one should have to wait to live the life they want, Doug co-founded SignatureFD to help clients build and live a rich life filled with purpose and abundance. As chief strategy officer, Doug merges his talents of analytical thinking and high-energy resilience to help create a team that is unwavering in delivering results-oriented financial designs and a high-touch, personalized experience rooted in core values.

With decades of experience, Doug focuses on helping the firm grow its strategic partnerships, acquiring highly-experienced talent, and championing the overall employee and client experience. As a thought leader on RIA firm growth, Doug has spoken nationally at several conferences and events, and has been featured in numerous publications.

Before co-founding SignatureFD, Doug joined Frazier & Deeter, LLC, in 1993, working primarily with high-net-worth individuals and closely held business owners on tax and financial planning issues. He holds a Master of Taxation with an emphasis in personal financial planning from Georgia State University and a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting from Furman University.

Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the certification marks CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and CFP® in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.
