My Net Worthwhile® is unlocking everyone's generosity potential.

Believing that everyone has the ability to create meaningful change in their communities, Elizabeth helps guide individuals and families looking for ways to give back by providing resources and advice to empower their decision-making. She is a dedicated partner in creating personalized strategies to help clients reach their generosity goals and maximize the impact of their gifts.

A seasoned public speaker and published author, Elizabeth has a unique skill set in fundraising, donor relations and engagement, program management, strategic communications, grant writing, and event design.

Before joining SignatureFD in 2019, Elizabeth was the Director of Donor Relations at The Westminster Schools in Atlanta and a Fellow at the Robert W. Woodruff Foundation. She also practiced law in Austin, Texas, and Atlanta, specializing in business litigation in state and federal courts. She received her law degree from the University of Texas and a Bachelor's degree in American History and Spanish from Washington and Lee University.

Elizabeth serves as the treasurer of the Board of Directors of Special Olympics of Georgia and on the Board of Plywood People. Elizabeth is also the founder of Bloom ATL, a women's giving circle serving women and children in Atlanta. She is a member of the Association of Donor Relations and the State Bars of Georgia and Texas and holds a Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy designation.
