My Net Worthwhile® is empowering others to make the best financial decisions that will positively affect their lives.

As a Senior Planning Associate, Madison partners with advisors to guide clients through every aspect of their financial lives, offering education and support so they can make wise choices. With a thoughtful and holistic approach, Madison is committed to helping clients see the bigger picture and take meaningful steps toward achieving their long-term goals.

Before joining SignatureFD, Madison worked at Goldman Sachs Ayco, where she gained extensive experience in tax, estate, retirement, and cash flow planning. She has worked closely with corporate executives and high-net-worth families, developing tailored strategies to address complex financial needs.

Madison earned her Bachelor of Science in Financial Planning from the University of Georgia and is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ (CFP®) professional. She is active in her community as a member of the Newnan Junior Service League, supporting local initiatives and service projects.

Outside of work, Madison enjoys traveling, discovering new restaurants, listening to podcasts, and reading. She especially loves spending time with her husband, Justin, and their two sons, Hampton and Crosby.
