My Net Worthwhile® is tackling complex challenges for clients and creating simple, easy-to-understand solutions.

McKenna thrives when she encounters difficult problems that need solutions. Financial planning presents a distinct set of challenges for each client. McKenna is naturally investigative and gets excited to dig into a client's unique set of details to help find the best path to meet their financial goals. As a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, she is always looking for ways to educate herself so her work is relevant and accurate in accordance with current-day regulations.

Before joining SignatureFD, McKenna worked as an associate wealth advisor for Berman Capital Advisors. There, she assisted Wealth Advisors with specific high-service accounts, prepared reports, reviewed client portfolios, and implemented investment changes. She holds a Master of Arts and Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Clemson University.

She is a First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta member and volunteers with the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.

Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards Inc. owns the certification marks CFP®, CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and CFP® in the U.S., which it awards to individuals who successfully complete CFP Board's initial and ongoing certification requirements.
