My Net Worthwhile® is providing clients with integral support for their daily financial needs so they can focus on their families.

As a senior client care associate, Mimi provides comprehensive account support services, including researching and responding to client inquiries, portfolio accounting and reporting. She works closely with the advisors, planners and fellow client care team members of Team Hickory to ensure a consistent, personalized client care experience.

Before joining the client care team, she served most recently as a marketing and events specialist and as an insurance client care associate on our Solutions Team. She graduated from the University of Georgia with a Bachelor of Science in Family and Consumer Services.

Mimi lives in Anderson, SC, with her fiancée Jesse and their two dogs, Libby and Hank. She enjoys volunteering at animal shelters and playing USTA tennis.
