My Net Worthwhile® is helping others live confidently.

Kameron leverages his 20 years of investment experience to provide financial, investment, and tax consulting and comprehensive wealth management planning to our firm's high-net-worth clients. He has a great passion for helping people gain financial security and believes that he can provide clients with financial confidence and a new wealth perspective through education.

Before SignatureFD, Kameron worked at Frazier & Deeter, LLC, helping high-net-worth individuals and closely held business owners with tax and business consulting issues.
