My Net Worthwhile® is guiding individuals and families toward financial clarity and confidence through personalized, high-touch service that fosters peace of mind and empowers them to achieve their goals.

As a Planning Associate, Rory is committed to delivering thoughtful, fiduciary-focused financial planning that helps clients make informed decisions with confidence. He partners closely with wealth advisors to design tailored strategies, coordinate every aspect of a healthy financial plan, and ensure exceptional client service. Rory combines strong attention to detail with a passion for simplifying complex situations, ensuring every client receives the focus and care their goals deserve.

Before joining SignatureFD, Rory served as a Senior Associate at Homrich Berg, where he worked with corporate executives and high-net-worth families in implementing various planning and investment strategies.

Rory earned his Bachelor of Science from Berry College and completed the Executive Program in Financial Planning at the University of Georgia. He is also a Certified Financial Planner™ (CFP®).

He is actively involved in the youth ministry at Christ the Redeemer in Marietta and volunteers with Lighthouse Family Retreat, supporting families navigating childhood cancer.

Outside of work, Rory enjoys playing tennis, training for endurance events, and spending time near Marietta Square with his wife, Breelan, and their golden retriever, Breaux.
