My Net Worthwhile® is helping business owners align their personal and business wealth with their values, goals, and vision for the future.

As a Wealth Advisor, Sib is passionate about helping owners of closely held businesses bring greater clarity and coordination to their financial lives. Serving as a Family CFO, he helps clients develop a cohesive strategy for their personal and business balance sheets, bringing together investment management, tax planning, cash flow management, and long-term planning. With clients' values as the foundation, Sib works alongside their CPAs, attorneys, and other specialists to help them navigate important milestones, from business growth and acquisitions to exits and legacy planning.

Before joining SignatureFD, Sib held corporate finance roles with three Fortune 50 companies, founded and sold two businesses, and managed a private real estate fund for 10 years. His firsthand experience as a business owner complements his expertise in advanced financial and tax planning strategies, entity structuring, and investment optimization.

Sib earned his MBA in Finance from Duke University and his BBA in Finance from the University of Wisconsin–Madison. He holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA®) and Certified Exit Planning Advisor (CEPA®) designations.

Sib is involved with Vistage, the Exit Planning Institute, and XPX. He also serves as Program Chair for the ProVisors M&A Affinity Group and Event Planning Chair for the
