My Net Worthwhile® is helping clients and their families take control of their financial independence.

With a diverse background spanning a multi-family office and SignatureFD, Wade has honed his expertise in navigating complex investment solutions tailored to high-net-worth families. He specializes in serving high-net-worth clients and providing personalized strategies and advice for families in their prime earning years. He strives to understand their unique financial needs and offers customized solutions to help them achieve their goals.

Wade's true passion lies in helping guide clients through various life stages, crafting financial plans that evolve with their personal and professional growth. Joining SignatureFD in 2014, Wade initially contributed to the Investment Team, managing portfolios and overseeing an internally managed private fund spanning private equity, credit, and real estate. His innate talent for client advisory quickly emerged, leading him to assume a partnership role within the firm by 2018.

Wade graduated from the University of Georgia with a degree in Financial Planning. Beyond his professional pursuits, he finds fulfillment in his active involvement with Christ the Redeemer of Marietta. With his wife and three children, Wade calls the area near the Marietta Square home, where he enjoys activities such as cheering for UGA football, playing golf, and coaching his children.

Committed to ongoing professional development, Wade embodies excellence in his field. His belief in the transformative power of financial independence fuels his dedication to each client's journey.
